Pierce County Submarket Boundaries

Boundaries start at the northwest corner and read clockwise, following census tract boundaries.

FIF – Fife

North: The northwest corner of the Fife submarket starts at a point in the Port of Tacoma area where there are no roads. This point can be determined by drawing a line due north from where I-5 crosses the Puyallup River. An east/west line can be drawn from the intersection of Taylor Way and Marine View Drive, which is to the east. From this intersection, imagine a line that extends north from 54th Ave. E to the King County line. The boundary then goes in a southeasterly direction along the county line to I-5, and then due east from I-5 where it parallels 1ST Street E, and further to the east, Alder Street, which are located in Milton.

East: Meridian Ave. E

South: Puyallup River

West: At a point where I-5 crosses the Puyallup River on a line due north

GIG – Gig Harbor

North: Kitsap County line

East: The Narrows

South: Puget Sound

West: Henderson Bay

LAK – Lakewood

East: I-5. At a point south of Hwy 512 on I-5, there is a small area of apartments on the east side of I-5 that is contiguous to McChord Air Force Base. It is formed on the east by the Burlington Northern Santa Fe railroad tracks and McChord Drive SW on the south where it intersects I-5. Proceed south of this intersection on I-5 for about 1.5 miles and there is another small apartment area that protrudes east of I-5 into an area bordered by the Fort Lewis Military Reservation. It can only be accessed by I-5 at Exit 123 where N Thorne Lane SW turns into Murray Road SW. The boundary continues southeasterly along I-5 toward the Thurston County line.

South: I-5 near Thurston County, the Tacoma South submarket crosses north into a portion of the south part of the Lakewood boundary. This land belongs to Fort Lewis and is south of Dupont. The southernmost point of the Lakewood submarket crosses into the Nisqually Estuary where it meets the Thurston County line. Dupont and Steilacoom are in this submarket.

West: Thurston County line, Puget Sound

TNC – Tacoma North, Central

North: Point Defiance Park, Commencement Bay to the King County line

East: King County line to a point that 54th Ave. E would intersect if it continued north to the county line.
